Sullivan Ready for a Fight.

John L. Sullivan says, now that the Mississippi trouble is disposed of, he is free to fight Jackson. He wants one more battle before he leaves the ring, and Jackson is the only man to be considered now. If the California Athletic Club or any other club will put up a purse of $20,000 for a fight between Jackson and myself, I will meet him in battle for the championship; do not care what the gloves are so long as they come within the restrictions of the law. It would not take long for me to train. I shall demand at least $20,000 and shall stick to it. If it is not worth that sum to the California Athletic Club it surely isn't worth any less to me. I am now willing to negotiate with the California Athletic Club; I couldn't do anything while sentence was hanging over me. I think that now is settled.

The San Francisco Chronicle says:

The proposal to amend the Constitution so as to make the election of United States Senators a matter of popular choice rather than of bargain and sale as at present does not meet the approbation of Edmunds, of Vermont. He says there is no popular demand for such a change and that it is only urged by office-seekers. Edmunds has been so busy acting as attorney of great railroad corporations he has hardly time to keep track of public opinion. Upon no subject has there been more outspoken comment than that of the abuse of the power reposed in State Legislatures of choosing United States Senators. All the critics of public life in the United States have noted and deplored its result, which has been to fill the upper house of Congress with men of no ability, and without any other qualification for the high office they hold than an abundance of money. The present system is a burning scandal and should be changed for that reason. Mr. Edmunds knows perfectly that he has at least sixteen colleagues who own their seats to direct or indirect use of money, and that there are perhaps as many more who are utterly distasteful to the people they represent, but who have been able to secure and hold their seats through the influence of corporations whose willing servants they are. The party that has the courage to take up this reform will have the people on its side in the effort to carry it through.

The quality of justice in Mississippi is not equal to that of the whisky. Slogger Kilrain was fairly convicted of an offense against the State laws for engaging in a prize fight, and was sentenced to serve two months in the Marion County Jail. There seemed to be no way to save the distinguished exponent of pugilism from the ignominy of jail life, but finally a wealthy young admirer named Rich bribed the county authorities with a large sum to carry out the force of selling Kilrain to him under the prison contract system. Such is the lame and impotent conclusion of all the legal warfare over this case that has filled columns in the newspapers.

The President's proclamation against seal poachers in Behring sea is issued early, and probably means something. The enterprising pirates who are reported to be fitting out for the Arctic will have some difficulty in getting marine insurance, as they need not flatter themselves that the Government will send slow steamers to the north this year.

Great expectations center about the new steel cruiser Newark, the last of five war vessels built by the Cramps, of Philadelphia. Of American design and constructed of American steel, the cruiser, if equal to the contract requirements, will be one of which the Government may expect great things in comparison with other war ships of the new navy.

CONGRESSIONAL NOTES.

FATAL COLLISION OF TWO FREIGHT TRAINS NEAR TAOCMA.

Fatal Floods in Australia—The Wilson-Choyinski Prize Fight at San Francisco.

Another Glove Contest.

Special to the JOURNAL.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—Billy Wilson, colored, the heavy-weight, of St. Paul, and Joe Choyinski, of San Francisco, fought at the Golden Gate Athletic Club to-night for a purse of $1,500, of which $250 went to the loser. Mike Lucie was referee. Time was called at 9:07.

Wilson drove Choyinski around the ring with powerful left-handers on the ribs, and once sent him sprawling under the ropes with a light tap. Joe rallied, however, and found Wilson's left eye with a right-hander that knocked him down. Wilson went to the floor four times in rushes before the end of the round.

In the second round Wilson again drove his opponent against the ropes but his blows were wild, and Choyinski sent him to the floor with a left-hand swing on the jaw. Wilson partly rose, but fell back and was counted out. The fight was brief and unsatisfactory, few good blows being exchanged by either man.

House Proceedings.

Special to the JOURNAL.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—The House Committee on Agriculture authorized a favorable report, with amendments, of the Butterworth bill defining "options" and "futures" and imposing a special tax on the dealers therein.

Herriman, of Oregon, to-day reported to the House from Committee on Indian Depredation claims his bill to provide for the adjustment and payment of these claims. Carey, of Wyoming, made a strong plea for the admission of the Territory. Washington, of Tennessee, attacked the woman's suffrage clause. Under it, women might be sent from Wyoming to the Senate. Morey, of Ohio, favored the bill and advocated the civil and legal enfranchisement of women in all States in the Union. After further debate the House took a recess until 11 o'clock to-morrow.

Doings in the Senate Yesterday.

Special to the JOURNAL.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—The caucus of Republican Senators to-day approved the order of business arranged by the committee. The programme includes the Anti-Trust bill, Dependent Pension bill, Administrative Customs bill and bills for the admission of Territories. Besides these there will occur a debate on the Montana election case.

After a long debate, the following amendments to the Anti-Trust bill were offered and adopted: By Butler, extending the provisions of the bill to stocks and bonds; Eustis, extending the powers to cotton prints, steel rails, boots and shoes, lead and lumber in the bill, including woolen goods and whisky. After the executive session Senate adjourned.

Pay Director Thomas H. Looker has been confirmed Chief of the Bureau of Provisions and Clothing, and Paymaster General of the Navy.

Railroad Collision.

Special to the JOURNAL.

TAOCMA, Wash., March 26.—Two freight trains on the Northern road collided on a curve in the Indian reservation three miles from this city late this afternoon and two locomotives were reduced to scrap iron and ditched. About half of each train is piled promiscuously on both sides of the track.

Engineer John Bailly was fatally injured, and both firemen and Engineer William Patton were badly hurt. The crews of both trains jumped to save their lives. Misunderstanding of orders was the cause of the collision.

$30,000 Gone up in Smoke.

Special to the JOURNAL.

PRESCOTT, Ariz., March 26.—The ton-stamp mill of the Standard Mining and Reduction Company, located eight miles south of Prescott, was destroyed by fire between 2 and 3 o'clock this morning, supposed to be the work of an incendiary. It was erected two years ago at a cost of $30,000. It has, of late, been in litigation, and was insured for $5,000.

Fatal Shooting Affray.

Special to the JOURNAL.

FRESNO, March 26.—Samuel Morris, a colored man, shot four times at Mrs. Mary Foster, also colored, to-day. Two shots took effect, one bullet passing through her body. The woman will die. She has been living with Morris for the past two months and jealousy was the cause of the shooting.

Arrival of the Man-of-War Iroquois.

Special to the JOURNAL.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—The United States man-of-war Iroquois, which put into Port Townsend with her machinery broken several weeks ago, arrived here last night.

Convicted of Murder.

Special to the JOURNAL.

SANTA ROSA, March 26.—Jim, the Indian who recently killed a fellow Indian in a drunken row, was to-day convicted of murder in the second degree.

STANLEY EXHIBITION.

The Dark Continent—Africa is the Topic of the Day.

LONDON, March 23.—It is announced officially that the Stanley Exhibition will be opened to the public March 24th, and public interest has been greatly quickened thereby. No show for many years has attracted more earnest attention than this. Indeed, Africa is the topic of the day. English admiration for Stanley is unbounded. Amid all the petty and often discreditable fads and follies of the day, it is refreshing to see with what genuine appreciation the great heroic character is regarded. It shows that there is a goodly strain of heroism still in the British character, for only heroic minds can comprehend a hero.

Among the notable exhibits the King of the Belgians sends a selection from his unrivaled collection. Captain Webb, of Newstead Abbey, Livingston's old and staunch friend, has placed a rich collection at the disposal of the committee.

This includes many Livingston relics such as the gold-laced constable cap, the inseparable companion of the old traveler during his last journeys. Captain Webb also sends many hunting trophies collected by himself when he was a mighty hunter in South Africa.

Captain Wilkinson sends some unique elephant assegais and other articles collected by him when in Mata Bealand and Mashonaland 30 years ago when he and his companions were nearly murdered because they were mistaken for Portuguese.

Another interesting feature which will probably form a great popular attraction, is a built-up model, nearly the size of nature, exhibiting typical scenes in Central Africa, native life, incidents connected with Arab slave-raiding and other features. As part of the background to these scenes is a representation of Mount Ruwenzori, for the construction of which Captain Nelson has given valuable hints. Another section has a background view of the great forest of the Aruwimi, in which the Emin expedition got entangled.

A Pastor Gets Damages.

Special to the JOURNAL.

NEW YORK, March 26.—The Jury in the Superior Court gave Rev. Dr. Rylance a verdict of $10,000 against Nicholas Quackenbush for libel. The Court gave plaintiff's counsel an extra allowance of $5,000. Dr. Rylance is the pastor of a fashionable Episcopal Church. During his absence, in Europe certain slanderous stories were circulated about him, and on his return, a faction headed by Quackenbush demanded his resignation. He refused and brought suit.

San Francisco vs. Western Union Company.

Special to the JOURNAL.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—The tax suit of the city of San Francisco against the Western Union Company was settled this morning in the Superior Court by Judge Finn, who decided that the telegraph company must pay taxes on its franchise, notwithstanding it was incorporated in New York. The judgment covers two suits for delinquent taxes of 1886 and 1887, and the amount involved is $3,500.

He Saw the Town.

Special to the JOURNAL.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., March 26.—Mark McCracken, a young blood from New Castle, came up to see Youngstown by electric light last night, and after visiting several dives he was drugged and robbed of his money. He staggered into police headquarters at midnight in a bad condition. His face had been pounded until he was almost unrecognizable. His clothes were torn and his hat lost.

Women Who Married Titles.

Special to the JOURNAL.

NEW YORK, March 26.—Street & Smith have just published a list of American women who have married foreigners of rank. The book is remarkably complete and is valuable as a reference, in addition to being decidedly interesting. It is called "Titled Americans" and contains the names and biographies of two hundred girls who have by matrimonial alliances gained a title.

Large Crops and Low Rates.

Special to the JOURNAL.

BALTIMORE, March 26.—The Interstate Commerce Commissioners took the testimony of a number of members of the Corn Exchange relative to the cause of low prices of food products West. Ex-President Mullock and a number of others, said the depression was due to large crops and that freight rates were as low as could be maintained by railroads.

SARAH AND HER PASSION PLAY.

A Synopsis of the Much-Talked-Of Drama.

It has been reported by cable dispatches that the French Government intends to forbid the performance of "The Passion Play," a religious drama, which was to be given at the Odeon theater, in Paris, with Sarah Bernhardt in the character of the Virgin. The great actress was anxious to play the character of the Virgin, after having obtained success in her role of Joan of Arc. She asked M. Harcourt, a young and well-known poet, to write for her "The Mystery of the Passion," which was to be represented at the Odeon only two or three times during the week preceding Easter, says the New York Tribune. The whole drama has been written in 1,500 lines, which are full of poetry. It is a literary work quite different from "The Passion Play" as represented at the famous German village of Oberammergau.

The play is divided into two chants or acts—the first entitled "The Son of the Man," and the second "The Sons of the Men." Each act is itself divided into three parts or tableaux. In the first act the poet starts from the principle that a man who is superior is forcibly endowed with an intelligence which leads him to love his fellow being, but as he sees them unhappy he suffers; hence the three subdivisions—(1) Idea, (2) Love and (3) Grief. The first subdivision represents Jesus entering the Temple and driving away the Pharisees. The Virgin cannot enter the Temple, but sees her son going down the steps and followed by an enthusiastic crowd. The second represents the Lord's Supper, and the third Jesus in the Garden. He goes to sleep and on his awakening he sees Mary at his side. This is the principal scene of the play. Jesus is deaf to the entreaties of his mother, who begs him in the most heartrending verses to desist from his mission.

The second act represents Jesus before the Sanhedrin tribunal, then before Pilate, and finally on his way to Golgotha. To a soldier who remarks to him that his cross is heavy, He answers in two beautiful verses: "I am falling down under the world's misery; the weight of sins is heavier than that of my cross." Jesus is placed on the cross. Mary is there, sobbing, but she is finally resigned. The guards handle her roughly and one of them, pushing the Virgin aside, brutally exclaims: "Beware of my stick!" Then the curtain falls.

Sister Rose Gertrude.

Dr. Whitney, of Honolulu, states that Sister Rose Gertrude, the English girl who was anxious to nurse lepers at Molokai, will not become an exile in the leper settlement. The settlement of Molokai is in charge of the Sisters of the Sacred Heart, and as Sister Rose Gertrude belongs to another order she could not be admitted. She is therefore in Kaliki, a receiving station for lepers or those supposed to have contracted the disease, where they are cared for until it is determined what their ailment really is.

A Fatal Flood.

Special to the JOURNAL.

BRISBANE, March 26.—A hurricane at Toowoomba has flooded the town and caused much damage. Several persons were drowned. Rains continue throughout Queensland.

Always Proper.

Lieutenant Governor Jones, in the New York Senate, has been counting a quorum, as Speaker Reed has done in the Federal House. This practice has been in vogue in the upper branch of the New York Legislature for a few years past. It is a good one, no matter which party is hurt or helped by it.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

An Effective Narcotic.

The proceedings of the United States Senate are getting to be quite lively nowadays. Something will have to be done to calm the nerves of the Senators. They are being deprived of the customary naps. Perhaps Mr. Evans might be induced to make a speech and lull the exorcises.—Boston Herald.

May Take Yankee Doodle Too.

It is now announced that English capitalists want to buy the world's fair. The list of belongings of English capital increases daily in this country. The only thing we will have left, if this thing keeps up, will be Yankee Doodle.—Wichita Eagle.

Political Possibilities.

The United States of Australia and the United States of Canada are likely to be designations not remote that will help reduce the theory that the sun never sets on the British possessions.—St. Paul Globe.

A Natural Sequence.

It is said that when Senator Jones, of Nevada, speaks on silver he rises into a wild storm of eloquence. The fact is not to be wondered at, for he is then upon his mettle.—Chicago Times.

The Silver State says:

A year ago last January J. H. Thies, of Lovelock, sowed about twenty acres of alfalfa. There was not moisture enough in the ground to sprout the seed and neither rain nor snow fell during the Winter or Spring. The Humboldt dried up and no water could be had to irrigate the ground. The Summer was the driest on record and the ground remained as dry as ashes until late in the Fall. The alfalfa seed retained its vitality during drought and storm and finally sprouted and is now growing nicely. Wheat sowed at the same time partly rotted and had to be sowed over again.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Dyspepsia

Makes the lives of many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. Distress after eating, sour stomach, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite, a faint, "all gone" feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels, are some of the more common symptoms. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts gently, yet surely and efficiently. It tones the stomach and other organs, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, and by thus overcoming the local symptoms removes the sympathetic effects of the disease, banishes the headache, and refreshes the tired mind.

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, and did me little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a faintness, or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. My trouble, I think, was aggravated by my business, which is that of a painter, and from being more or less shut up in a room with fresh paint. Last spring I took Hood's Sarsaparilla—took three bottles. It did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced." The Virginia Chronicle says the development upon which the movement in Potosi is based is located in a raise above the 930 level, 300 feet south of the Chollar south line and 400 feet north of the Bullion north line. The raise is up sixty feet and is said to show a face of quartz nearly five feet in width, a foot and a half of which is high grade ore. An east crosscut is being advanced on the 850 level to cut this ore, which it will probably reach in about three weeks, when lateral drifts will be run to strip it north and south. The point in the mine where the ore was developed is located under the small brick building on the hill south and east of the Chollar hoisting works.

Hua Cattle Left Yet.

The Winnemucca Silver State, of Tuesday, says:

John R. Bradley passed here yesterday on his way to Elko. He has been rustling for two months to keep his cattle alive. He had hay shipped to the cattle in some instances and cattle shipped to the hay in others. He says the firms of Russell &amp; Bradley and Mason &amp; Bradley, in both of which he is interested, lost six or seven thousand head, but they have twice that number living, though it took rustling, money and hard work to keep them alive.

The disease said to have broken out among the cattle which Russell and Bradley drove to Churchill county was nothing more than blast caused by the starved cattle over-eating.

He says, that though the winter was the most severe ever experienced in the State and disastrous to stock, those that survived will have an abundance of feed for some time to come. It was absolutely necessary to have plenty of snow and rain to restore the range and prevent all the stock in the State from starving in mid-summer.

THE BLAIR SUNDAY BILL.

Resolutions Adopted by the W. C. T. U., of Reno.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—At the close of a musical and literary entertainment given by the W. C. T. U. and Y. W. C. T. U., of Reno, Tuesday evening, March 25th, the following resolutions were adopted by a rising vote:

WHEREAS, All American citizens have an inherent, inalienable and constitutional right to worship their Creator, and

WHEREAS, The testimony of such men as Gladstone, Washington, Lincoln, Seward, Garfield and Daniel Webster the history of the greatest of nations, and the philosophy of the influence of Christianity upon morality and respect for legality, all affirm that the general welfare and prosperity of a country depends largely upon its abiding by the principles of Christianity, therefore, by this congregation of citizens of Reno, assembled for the purpose of promoting the interests of temperance, morality and intellectual advancement, and composed of a large number of the members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, Young Woman's Christian Temperance Union, Good Templars and other temperance advocates,

Resolved, That the Government of the United States, while it may not presume to establish any form of sectarian religion, yet, in order both to secure to individuals their personal rights to worship their Creator, and to perpetuate its own prosperity, is in duty to place before its citizens no obstacle in the way of their adopting the principles of Christianity, and

Resolved, That the Government has no right, nor is it expedient, to deprive its citizens of the regularly instituted means of worship or defraud them of the constitutionally required physical rest, by compelling them to work on the Lord's day; and

Resolved, That we hereby endorse the Blair Sunday Rest Bill, whose object is to restore to the employees of the Government their rights to worship their creator, and to insure to the employees of private corporations, so far as it is in the power of the Government to do so, the same rights, and to protect the great mass of Christian worshippers from unnecessary disturbance and annoyance during their stated time of worship; and

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Reno papers for publication, and to the Virginia Chronicle, Carson Appeal and Tribune, and to such other papers of the State as publish resolutions opposed to said bill.

HOYT COMEDY COMPANY.

A Large Audience Pleasantly Entertained Last Evening.

A larger nor better pleased audience has rarely filled the Opera House than that assembled to witness the production of the humorous sketch, "A Hole in the Ground" by the Hoyt Comedy Company last evening. The success of the amusing skit depends exclusively upon the ability of the members of the company to furnish fun for their auditors, and that they did so was amply attested by the alternate roars of laughter and applause that followed every witty rally in the dialogue and the numerous well rendered songs and dances interlarded in the various scenes.

Although a highly exaggerated picture of scenes at an obscure railway station where the train is late, there is just enough naturalness in the absurd situations to invest them with amusing interest.

The company includes several talented ladies and gentlemen in its personnel, Miss Katie Hart rivalling Nellie McHenry in her ability to dance and sing herself into a primo favorite with the audience in less than five seconds after her first appearance before the footlights.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. feb. 21-sw-ly

Dead Cattle.

The Silver State, of Tuesday, says: The carcasses of cattle that perished last winter, along the bed of the Humboldt, are now floating down the river. Yesterday some persons who were on the bridge counted 39 in sight at one time.

Go and see the Reno Guards inspected next Saturday evening at the Pavilion, and enjoy a social dance. Ladies free. Gentlemen 50 cents.

Is the reason people will not, can not or do not see any difference in cheap nostrums put up by cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BLOOD PURIFIER AND BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do it will cost you nothing.

Carlyle and the Ass.

One morning, a few minutes before the school hour, when most of the pupils had arrived and they had gone into the school, a donkey was entering the playground. Bill Hood and I were so far on our way, rushed to mount the animal and began to guide and force it into the school. With desperate spurring the donkey was induced to carry its rider over the threshold, and what a reception both of them got from the juvenile crowds! Bags of books were at once fastened to the tail and around the neck of the ass, and so busy were Bill and half a dozen companions in urging the brute to canter around the school and to ascend the short stair of the master's desk that they did not notice how time was speeding, and before they could remove the stranger Mr. Carlyle appeared. We expected a tremendous explosion of wrath, but he burst into a roar of laughter—such a roar, however, as, instead of tempting us to join in it, produced a sudden and complete hush, and that roar was renewed again and again, when the ass, withdrawing its fore feet from the first step of the desk stair and turning round, took a pace or two slowly toward the master as if to salute him.

"That," exclaimed Carlyle, "is the wisest and best scholar Kircaldy has yet sent me; he is fit to be your teacher."

He tapped the donkey's head, as he was wont to do ours, and said: "There's something here far more than in the skulls of any of his brethren before me, though these skulls are patted in fond admiration by papas and mammas, and though that far grander headpiece meets only with merciless blows."

He then gave some hard taps on Bill Hood's head, and would not allow him to dismount, but for penalty ordered him to ride up and down the school for an hour, while the boys who had been most active in helping Bill to go through the farce had to march in pairs before and behind the perplexed-looking ass. He did not require the other scholars to attend to their school lessons, but silently permitted them to stand as spectators of the grotesque procession. Then he himself, seated within the pulpit-like desk, surveyed Bill and his company with a strange mixture of mirth, scorn and fury.—Cor. Edinburgh Scotsman.

In a Kentucky Cave.

Provided with lanterns, several young men started in the entrance known as Coleman's Cave Spring, near Harrodsburg, and went eastward three miles, where they could distinctly hear the trains on the Cincinnati Southern road at Burgin, which is four and a half miles from this place. They found a stream of water running the entire distance explored. In this stream they found fish and frogs innumerable. The passage was from seven to fifteen feet wide and about the same height, except occasionally narrowing down to a fat man's misery. Not far from the entrance the explorers found a large room, twenty to thirty feet, studded with stalactites. In the center of the cavern is a circular chamber thirty feet in diameter and no less than fifty feet high. This is a veritable rotunda, covered, as it were, by a high, well shaped dome. Over the entrance is a large curtain formed by the union of stalactites and stalagmites, fifteen feet wide and as many high. The most unique thing found by the explorers in the cave was the fac-simile of a side saddle, all of solid sandstone, opposite the doorway in this chamber.

The young men attempted to sing the "Star Spangled Banner," but were forced to desist on account of the terrible reverberating echo that filled every nook, corner and recess of the cave. They found a number of bones of small animals, but aside from the fish and frogs no living creature was found. They will explore the cave in a few days, going a different direction from the one taken by them yesterday. Near the outer opening of the cave, cut in stone, was found the initials "D. B.," and numerous figures and designs of animals and birds. The initials were supposed to be for Daniel Boone, and those who saw them say they look to have been placed there years ago.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Proverbs About Rain.

When there is unusual clearness in the atmosphere, and objects are seen very distinctly, there will probably be rain. When clouds are gathering toward the sun at setting, with a rosy hue, they foretell rain.

Evening gray and morning red,

Put on your hat, or you'll wet your head.

If rain commences before day, it will stop before 8 a. m.; if it begins about noon, it will continue through the afternoon; if not till 5 p. m., it will rain through the night; if it clears off in the night, it will rain the next day.

If it rains before seven,

It will clear before eleven.

If it rains before sunrise, expect a fair afternoon. If it rains when the sun shines, it will rain the next day. If clouds appear suddenly in the south, expect rain.

Rain from the south prevents the drouth.

But rain from the west is always best.

When rain comes from the west, it will not continue long. If rain falls during an east wind, it will continue a full day. If an assemblage of small clouds spread out or become thicker or darker, expect rain. Small inkly clouds foretell rain. Dark clouds in the west at sunrise indicate rain on that day. If the sky after fine weather becomes heavy with small clouds, expect rain.—Boston Journal.

Adulterated China Tea.

The heathen Chinese, who is nothing if not economical, has an ingeniously simple method of eating his cake—or, rather, in the celestial translation, drinking his tea—and having it also. He makes the tea, drinks the first delicate infusion and then dries the leaves again, packs them in those mysteriously lettered boxes we know and exports them to the western barbarian, who, he has found out, likes his tea strong and stewed. It is true that the tannic acid apt to come out of the leaf in the second infusion may injure the British stomach. That is not John Chinaman's business; he knows the beauty and profit of adulteration.—New York Telegram.

250 Beautiful Lots For Sale!

A RARE CHANCE FOR AN INVESTMENT AND A HOME

THE MOST LOVELY PORTION OF RENO.

Facing the Truckee—The Aristocratic Avenue Riverside Driveway—Splendid Sewerage—Healthy Location and Safe From Fire.

The proprietor is now ready to receive proposals for lots in Powning's Addition. The map gives a good idea of the tract, which is situated between the Central Pacific Railroad and the Truckee River, and commences on the west at a point three blocks distant from Virginia Street, making it the most central and convenient of any portion of the rapidly growing town of Reno. Unlike any other part of the town this Addition faces the beautiful Truckee River and Riverside Avenue is certain to become the fashionable driveway of the country. The streets are 80 feet wide, while Riverside and Keystone Avenues are intended to be 100 feet in width. All alleys are 20 feet wide. The soil is a rich gravelly loam, and susceptible of the highest state of cultivation. Being situated as it is it is more safe from fire than any other section. The regular lots are 50x140 feet. The sewerage is perfect.

Before Buying Elsewhere Parties will do Well to Look at These Lots.

RENO

Reno's geographical position is excellent. It is on the line of the Central Pacific Railroad, only 154 miles from Sacramento, and 244 miles from San Francisco. It is the terminus of the Virginia and Truckee Railroad running south, and of the Nevada and California Railroad running north. It has two Flouring Mills, Planing Mills, three Nurseries, a Soap Factory, Reduction Works, and other industries. A great Woolen Mill and a Sash, Door, Blind and Box Factory, are about to be established.

Reno has the Bank of Nevada with $300,000 capital, and the First National Bank with $200,000 capital. It has two fine papers in the DAILY and WEEKLY NEVADA STATE JOURNAL and the Daily and Weekly Gazette.

Reno is the natural home of the Alfalfa, and therefore the great cattle headquarters of the State. Here are fed the prime beef for the California market. Reno potatoes are the best in the world, and she also excels in Strawberries and the small fruits. Reno Wheat took the first prize at the great New Orleans Exposition.

The State Fair is always held at Reno.

Reno is the County Seat of Washoe County, the wealthiest county in Nevada.

Has no equal in Nevada or California for salubrity of climate, wealth of soil, diversity of products and stability. Situated in the very heart of the celebrated Truckee Meadows the future of Reno is assured. Reno is the City of Homes. There is not a house to rent in Reno. New buildings are occupied as fast as erected. Reno has advantages which no other town can equal. The climate is mild and genial in Winter, and even and healthful in Summer. There are no excessively heated or severely cold terms, and while the days may be warm in Summer the nights are deliciously cool; in Winter sleigh-riding is the exception and not the rule.

Facilities for irrigating surpass any in the State and there is no failure of crops. Reno has Churches of all denominations, Bishop Whitaker's School for Girls, Mt. St. Mary's Academy, the State University, and splendid Public Schools.

The Reno Water Co. furnishes ample pure, cold water for all purposes. The Reno Electric Light Co.'s electric light system, already well established, is being augmented. The Reno Gas Co. supplies gas for all purposes. The streets of Reno are lighted by electricity.
